

WI Treatment Court Standards Training-2015 Facilitator Biographies

Katie Behl	Katie Behl is the Treatment Court Coordinator for the OWI and Drug Court programs in Walworth County, WI. Katie has been with the OWI Court program since December of 2011, and has been an active board member of Wisconsin Association of Treatment Court Professionals since 2014. She graduated in 2012 from the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater with a degree in sociology, emphasis in criminal justice.
Judge R. Ellen Brostrom	Judge Ellen R. Brostrom was elected to the Milwaukee County Circuit Court in 2009. Judge Brostrom recently completed a two year rotation in the Milwaukee County Drug Treatment and Veterans Treatment Courts. She has also served in various criminal courts, including misdemeanor, domestic violence and homicide-sexual assault.
Carol Carlson	Carol Carlson has been the Milwaukee County Drug Treatment Court Coordinator since 2012. Carol is also the current President of Wisconsin Association of Treatment Court Professionals (WATCP). She has held this position since 2014, serving as president elect for one year prior. Carol also served on the Wisconsin legislative study committee for problem solving courts in 2015 and has been a regular attendee at the NADCP annual conferences. Carol received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Tennessee and Masters of Social Work from University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, with a certificate in Non-Profit Management.
Judge Kathryn Foster	Judge Kathy Foster helped develop the first OWI treatment court in Waukesha County in 2006, and has been a circuit court judge since 1988. Judge Foster is also past president of the Wisconsin Association of Treatment Court Professionals. She is a regular presenter at the Wisconsin Judicial College and has attended numerous national conferences and training on the establishment and maintenance of treatment court programs.
Jared Hoy	Jared Hoy is a Policy Initiatives Advisor in WI DOC's Office of the Secretary. Over the past 4 years, Jared has chaired the Department's Unified Corrections Coalition, facilitating the implementation of evidence-based risk/need assessment for the state. Jared holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and a Master's Degree in Counseling and Therapy, and has worked in the field of Corrections since 1999.
Patrick Isenberger	Patrick Isenberger has worked at Eau Claire County Department of Human Services for over 15 years and started assisting the drug court advisory board with developing the Eau Claire County Drug Court in October 2003. He has been the coordinator of the program since it started accepting participants in October 2004. Patrick first started working in the AODA field in 1992 and over the last 20 years has worked in a variety of treatment facilities, ranging from hospital-based inpatient to long term residential. Patrick has an Associate degree in alcohol and other drug abuse and a bachelor's degree in Vocational Rehabilitation from UW Stout. He has been a licensed Clinical Substance Abuse Counselor for over 15 years and is also a Licensed Clinical Supervisor.

WI Treatment Court Standards Training-2015 Facilitator Biographies

Jane Klekamp	Jane Klekamp recently took the position of La Crosse County Associate Administrator after 20 years of serving as the coordinator for the Criminal Justice Management Council. During that time Jane has worked with others to establish multiple treatment courts, gender-specific programming, pretrial services and alternatives to jail sentences, resulting in closing the Huber Center in 2005. Most recently she has been the staff person for La Crosse County's Evidence-Based Decision Making implementation.
Dr. Constance Kostelac	Dr. Constance (Connie) Kostelac is the Director of the Bureau of Justice Information and Analysis (BJIA) with the Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ). In this capacity, Connie conducts a variety of criminal justice research and program evaluation, is working to enhance the Wisconsin Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program, and serves as the Statistical Analysis Center (SAC) Director for Wisconsin. Connie brings more than 15 years of research, analysis, and teaching experience on criminal justice topics and holds a Ph.D. in Justice Studies from Arizona State University, M.S. in Criminology from Florida State University, and B.A. in Criminology and Law Studies and Psychology from Marquette University.
Judge Elliott Levine	Judge Levine is the presiding judge over the La Crosse County OWI Treatment Court, and has been Circuit Court Judge in the county since 2007. He is a member of the Treatment, Alternatives and Diversion (TAD) Program Advisory Committee, the Effective Justice Strategies Subcommittee and the Wisconsin Supreme Court Planning and Policy Advisory Committee (PPAC), the Statewide Criminal Justice Coordinating Council sub-committees on Evidence Based Decision Making and Treatment Courts. Judge Levine is a past President of Wisconsin Association Treatment Court Professionals. Currently he is a board member of WATCP and chair of the WATCP Committee on Statewide Standards. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1990. From 1990 to 2007 he worked at the La Crosse Wisconsin State Public Defender's Office.
Judge John Markson	Judge John Markson has presided in Dane County's OWI treatment court since its inception four years ago, and has been a circuit court judge in the county for eight years. Judge Markson previously presided in drug treatment court for four years.
Ryan McMillen	Ryan has been the Wood County Adult Drug Treatment Court case manager/coordinator since 2007. An employee of ATTIC Correctional Services and Wood County Adult Drug Treatment Court, he has been involved with the TAD program and TAD program reporting since Wood County received the TAD grant in 2007. Ryan has held previous positions as a treatment group facilitator, alternative school supervisor and program coordinator for juvenile and adult treatment programs. Ryan graduated from Viterbo University in La Crosse, WI with a BA in psychology in 1997.

WI Treatment Court Standards Training-2015 Facilitator Biographies

Judge Mitch Metropulos	Judge Mitch Metropulos has been Co-Presiding Judge of Outagamie County's Drug and Alcohol Treatment Court since 2009, and Alternative Presiding Judge of the Outagamie County Mental Health Court since 2014. Prior to becoming Circuit Court Judge in 2007, he was an Assistant District Attorney from 1987 to 2007 in Chippewa, Outagamie, and Winnebago Counties. Judge Metropulos has also been an Adjunct Teacher at Fox Valley Technical College's Division of Criminal Justice since 2003.
Elizabeth Pohlman McQuillen	Elizabeth Pohlman McQuillen has been Rock County's Criminal Justice System Planner/Analyst since February 2008. In this role, Elizabeth staffs the County's Criminal Justice Coordinating Council, Behavioral Health Redesign Steering Committee, and Evidence-Based Decision Making Ad Hoc Committee, and works closely with the County's Drug Court, OWI Court, and Veterans Court. Before coming to Rock County, she was the Director of Career Services at Chicago-Kent College of Law and a practicing attorney.
Bethany Robinson	Bethany Robinson is the Alternative Treatment Coordinator, Veterans Treatment Court Coordinator and CJCC Coordinator for Outagamie County. Bethany also serves as the local coordinator for the County's EBDM Policy Team. She previously worked in Brown County as the Drug Court Coordinator, assisted with coordinating the Northeast Wisconsin Veterans Treatment Court and assisted in the planning and development process for the Mental Health Court and Heroin Treatment Court in Brown County. Bethany is a Clinical Substance Abuse Counselor with experience working in an outpatient clinic as well as nine years working on an inpatient psychiatric unit.
Kristin Schier	Kristin Schier is currently Grant County's Treatment Court Coordinator for both Drug Court and OWI Court. Kristin holds a Paralegal Degree and has been working in the legal system since 1995. Prior to her role as the coordinator, she worked as the court's judicial assistant in Grant County Circuit Court for over 18 years.
Judge Lisa Stark	Judge Lisa Stark serves as Deputy Chief Judge for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, and is Presiding Judge for the District 3 Court of Appeals. She previously served as a Circuit Court Judge in Eau Claire County, and presided over Eau Claire County's Drug Treatment Court for nine years. Judge Stark is a long time proponent of drug treatment courts and integrating evidence-based decision making into the justice system, and has spoken statewide on those topics on many occasions.